

Governor to Visit Bay To Speak at Fete for Outstanding Citizens

About thirty-two of the thirty or more organizations of Hancock County have listed candidates for the outstanding man and woman of the County who will be honored at a testimonial banquet at the student dining hall at St. Stanislaus, Saturday, May 12 at 8 p.m.

The dinner is being sponsored by the St. Stanislaus Sideline Club as a civic endeavor. Guest speaker for the occasion.

Selection of the honored man and woman will be made by a committee composed of members of the Sideline Club. For obvious reasons, the membership of this committee will not be made public.

Mr. Earl Ramond, President of the St. Stanislaus Sideline Club, is General Chairman and will be the Toastmaster at the banquet. Anyone wishing tickets for the dinner may contact Mr. Ramond or the college. The charge is $5.00 per plate.

Whatever profits may accrue from the dinner will be used by the Club towards the debt incurred last fall when steel bleachers were purchased for the football field.

As this will very probably mark the first visitation of a Governor of our State to Bay St. Louis, we feel sure that a full house will be on hand to greet him.

Six-Man Jury Finds Kothmann Guilty Tues.

A six-man jury deliberated five minutes before finding Henry Kothmann, 44, guilty of using pinball machines for gambling purposes in his restaurant, four miles west of Bay St. Louis on Hwy. 90.

The decision came a few minutes after midnight Tuesday.

After the heated misdemeanor case before Judge Neilus Rhodes at the court house, District Attorney Boyce Holleman said that Kothmann was fined $100 and court costs. D. M. Russell, Jr., Bay St. Louis, defense counsel said an appeal was made and a second trial is set for circuit court in September.

The restaurant owner was arrested April 29 by Constable Herman Mazarakis, Beat 5, on the charge of operating two pinball machines and making payoffs which constituted them as gambling devices.

The state paraded six teenagers, five stating that they had "gambled" at Kothmann's and were "paid off" for their winnings. A 19-year-old Waveland youth said that he was using his unemployment check to play pinball machines and also said that he once won $4.

Constable Mazarakis was the state's first witness and said that he had received many complaints about the establishment, including one from Mayor John Scaife. Mazarakis also said that he had twice before April 29, the day the two pinball machines were removed from the cafe, warned Kothmann to "stop paying off."

When asked by the defense counsel to name some of the parties complaining, Mazarakis could recall three, the Mayor, who was in Jackson, Tuesday night, Roland LaFountain, who was in New Orleans, and E. J. Marengo, candy dealer.

Marengo was promptly subpoenaed and then denied that he had complained to Mazarakis, but just before the hearing Mazarakis asked him whether or not he had seen any payoffs at the restaurant and he said he had not.

Armed Forces Day Set

A local Armed Forces Day observance has been planned for Saturday, May 13, according to Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3253, which is sponsoring the program.

The VFW said a flyover of planes from Keesler Field about 1:30 p.m. would be the signal for the start of a parade, which will terminate at Stanislaus Stadium.

The parade will include about 100 men from Keesler AFB, military units, the local National Guard, military equipment, bands, and other marching units, the VFW said.

An hour program at the stadium following the parade will include a drill team from Keesler, band, and a speaker; it was announced.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Davis Sunday were Dr. and Mrs. B. Matthews and family of New Orleans, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Folse and family of Collins. The occasion was the christening of the Foleses' daughter, Karyn, at Our Lady of the Gulf Church Friday. Father Hugh Taylor officiated, and Dr. and Mrs. Matthews were Godparents.

This is the first annual meeting of the Live Oaks Writer's Conference and is being sponsored by the National League of American Pen Women, Biloxi branch. The conference will offer information, inspiration, and exchange of ideas to professionals and beginners and all sessions will be open to the public.

Other speakers will include Mary Cain, editor and writer of Summit, J. Ashton Greene, poet, New Orleans, Alice Claud, poet, New Orleans, Warren Ogden, editor, New Orleans, Dorothy Robinson, Biloxi, and Dr. Calvin Claude, Warren Baston High School, New Orleans.

LIBRARY BOARD TO MEET

The Hancock County Memorial Library Board will meet Tuesday May 15th, at 3:30 p.m. in the library.

YOUTH HELD IN HANCOCK JAIL IN CONNECTION WITH BURGLARY

An 18-year-old Whitney, Pa., youth his being held in the Hancock County Jail, after he was arrested Tuesday night in connection with entry of a Pass Christian Service Station.

The teen-ager is said to have taken an undetermined amount of cigarettes, cookies and money.

Pass Christian chief of Police, Adolph Pouyadou identified the boy as Kenny Stump, saying he had broken into DeMetz Service Station and had stolen the money.

towards Bay St. Louis in a stolen automobile.

Hancock County deputy sheriff Sam Peterson and Highway Patrolman Bill Kenny were notified of the theft and apprehended Stump at Ray's Drive-In, on Hwy. 90, just outside the city limits.

The officers found cigarettes, cookies and the money in the vehicle the youth was driving.

Chief Pouyadou said while investigation is being continued, Stump is being held in the Hancock County jail, pending charges.

Mazarakis Extortion Trial Is Slated For Next Week

Charged with extortion, Herman J. Mazarakis, 40, constable of Beat 5, will go on trial Tuesday, a date tentatively set. The case originally had been scheduled for last Tuesday but could not be reached District Attorney Boyce Holleman said.

Mazarakis was arrested last week by Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner on a warrant signed by Henry Kothmann.

In a separate trial Tuesday Kothmann testified that Ma-zarakis had demanded a payoff of $6 a week, offering to permit the use of two pinball machines as gambling devices.

Kothmann alleged that in a discussion between themselves, in a booth, the law officer said he would take the machines out if he didn't get a payoff.

The restaurant owner said that he had two $250 federal gambling licenses which came with the cafe, Phillip's 66, but never used them for any purpose.

Mrs. Kothmann said she had overheard the two discussing the matter, and said she heard her husband say he "couldn't pay $300 a year."

Mazarakis was not questioned about the extortion charge Tuesday. However, he said his talk with Kothmann was about complaints he had received concerning payoffs on pinball machines.

The constable said that Phillips was the only place in Beat 5, largest beat in Hancock County, he had received complaints about and knew of the operation of gambling devices.

Five youths questioned said that they had played regularly at two other places, but didn't know if they were paying off now.

Aubert Dunn, Gulfport, former U.S. Congressman, is defense counsel for Mazarakis.

Vesper Service To Launch Bay High Commencement

First of the Commencement Exercises of the Bay St. Louis Public School will be held at 6 p.m. Sunday, May 20, with a Vesper Service in the high school auditorium. Guest speaker will be Dr. R. C. A U. S. Coast Guard helicopter from New Orleans was called to the Bay St. Louis-Pass Christian area late Wednesday afternoon, searching for a sailboat and occupant reported overdue.

In a telephone conversation, the Coast Guard said the helicopter searched the area for three hours, starting at 4 o'clock, and reported that the boat had overturned with its lone rider reaching land safely. The sailboat departed from Biloxi Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock and was due in Pass Christian at noon.

Woman Instantly Killed as Auto Crashes Into Truck

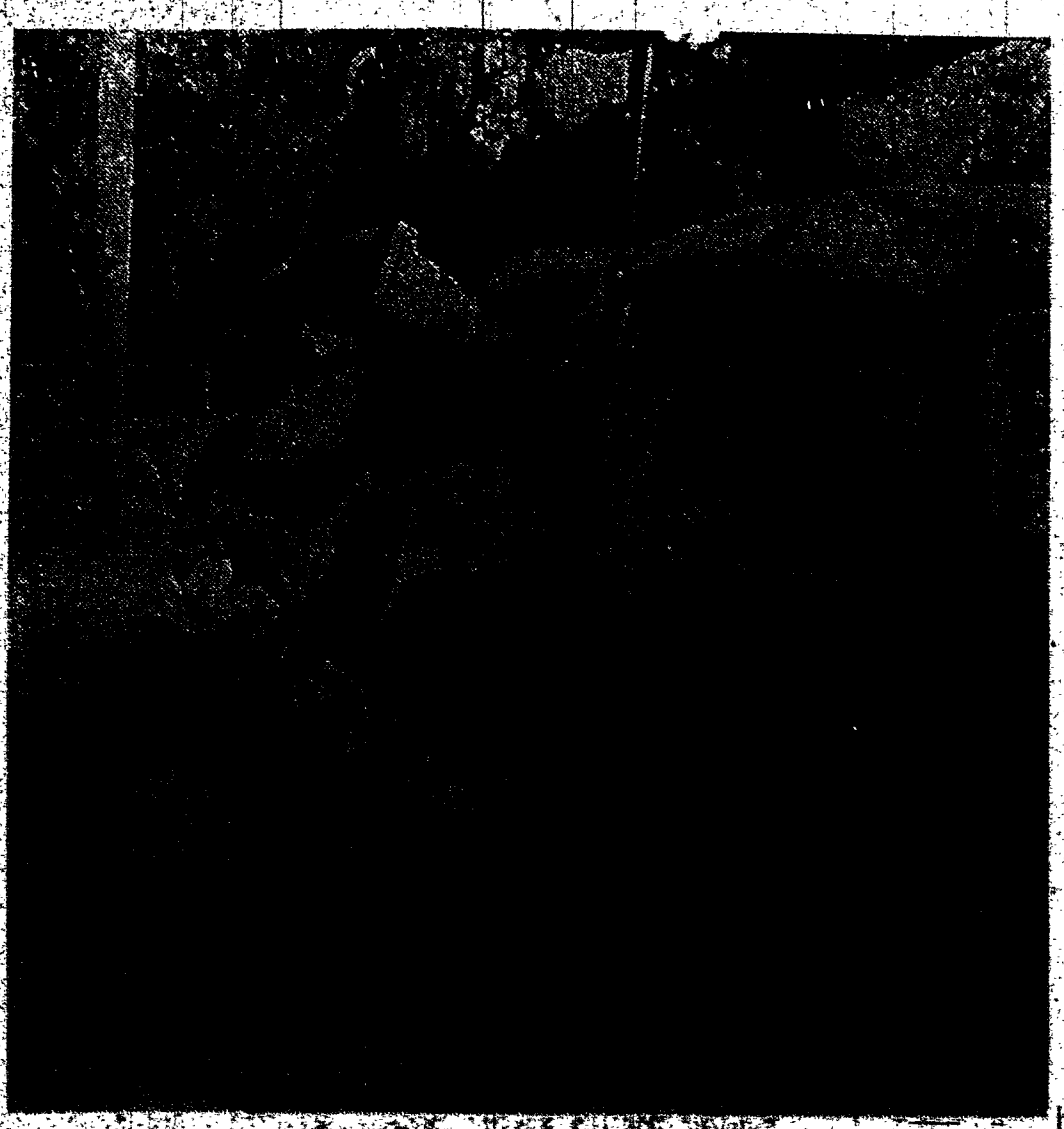

An attractive 18-year-old mother was killed instantly in a head-on car-truck collision on Hwy. 90 Saturday morning near the Louisiana-Mississippi line, becoming Hancock County's third traffic fatality of the year.

Mrs. Etta Lewis, enroute from Harlington AFB, Texas to her home in Pensacola, Fla., was listed as the victim.

Her husband, Donald Mitchell Lewis, 20, was listed Wednesday in an improved condition at Veterans Hospital in Biloxi, while his 30-month old son is reported recovered from minor injuries.

Lewis driving his automobile east on Hwy. 90, was reported to have apparently dozed off at the wheel, crashing into a west-bound trailer-truck full of cattle on the north side of the road.

Patrolman Bill Kenny said that a Bay St. Louis physician summoned to the scene to free Lewis' leg from the wreckage. Lewis was said to have been pinned in the car for more than an hour.

Members of the Lewis family had reported the possibility that Donald Lewis may lose his leg. However, hospital recovery and two young Lewis boys deny the seriousness of the injury.

Constable Herman Mazarakis arrested Kothmann April 29 and Mrs. Heitzmann was charged late Tuesday afternoon.

The District Attorney said he was fond of Hancock County but it seemed lately that every time he came here he ended up being an accused instead of the prosecutor.

In a telephone conversation from Wiggins Holleman told the Echo that no additional charges have been made, but declined to say if he is contemplating filing charges.

Mrs. Marie Heitzmann, 34, waitress at Phillip's 66, took the stand as a defense witness.

Asked by the District Attorney that since a group of teenagers had said she was paying off on the pinball machines, and since she herself denied the charges, the teenagers must be lying, Mrs. Heitzmann, named in 1954 as Hancock County's citizen of the year, replied "You're

Charge Two With Letting Minors Gamble on Pinballs

District Attorney Holleman said Mrs. Heitzmann was charged as a co-defendant after 14 persons named her as one who "paid them off" after winning at a pinball machine.

On the witness stand concerning another trial Tuesday, Mrs. Heitzmann said that the district attorney told her that if she "covered up" for Kothmann he would name her as a co-defendant, which she considered a threat.

Holleman emphatically denied this and said that he had had no choice but to name her as co-defendant since there were 14 witnesses that said she paid them off over the counter for winning at a game, and that she had denied this.

the District Attorney, you figure it out."

She testified that a number of the teen-agers came to the restaurant to play the pinball machines, and that the parents of a number of the boys ate, and watched them while they played the machines, and never complained. She stated that she had refunded nickels to the players when the machines were tilted, or broke, but that she had not made pay-offs. She further testified, when asked by the counsel, that the restaurant did not serve whiskey or beer.

While a juror played with a little moth, and another gave watch to a bird flying in the courtroom, Holleman asked her why she would keep looking at her lawyer and she said, "Do I have to look at you?"

May Festivals At Bay Schools Highlight Weekend Activity

Two May Festivals, held Friday and Saturday nights, drew a large crowd of spectators, by chance, themes that might have been successfully combined.

Bay High School had for its theme "A Night in a Summer Garden," centering around a gay Maypole, while St. Joseph Academy's theme was "Sweethearts," with a huge heart of flowers attracting spontaneous admiration.

The flower heart was on a raised dais above the stage, with a portal through which the dukes and maids walked.

Miss Janelle Mitchell and Joseph Kern ruled over the court, while Miss Eleanor Kreiger and Louis Ladner were duke and maid of honor.

Cheryl Blaize and Michael Blake were junior rulers, and Susan Ryan and Osmond Blake were junior maid and duke. Train bearers were Louise Doner and Patrick Murphy, while flower girls were Rhonda Ann Roland, Cheryl Ann Ladner, Fahay Ann di Benedetto, Sue Thomas, Patricia Green, Michael Reineke, Laura Ann Piazza, and Beth Colson.

Garland Bearers were Mimi Monti, Jean Rutherford, Peggy Hoggins, Mary Elizabeth Lagarde, Linda Koch, Jennie Green, Charlene Ann Benigno, Lillian Trivica, Elizabeth Ann Morlan, Julie Delph, Mary Ann Becker, Peggy Bermond and Elaine Shaw.

The dance and song group which featured "Sweetheart" were composed of Diane Taylor, Beth Murtagh, Virginia Benigno, Ruby Bowen, Louise Bufkin, Patty Babin, Mary Ann Rauch, Alice Banderet, Anita Giani, Susan Devall, Dennis

Waveland News

Miss Cecile Turcotte, the first, second, third, and fourth grades of the Waveland Elementary School enjoyed an all day outing on Tuesday. The group first journeyed to the Colonial Bakery and were taken on a tour of the plant and witness the making of rolls and buns. After the trek to the bakery the group stopped at the Memorial Park in Pass Christian and were served a picnic lunch by Mesdames Oswald L. A. d'ner, Forrest Bourgeois, Frank Hoggins, George Digby, Robert Reynolds, Herman Yarbrough, Stanley Medman, Willie Bourgeois, Jr., Bert Morreale and Misses Cecile and Mary Margaret Turcotte.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fayard, Sr. were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fayard, Jr. and children, Betsy and Bobbie, Mr. and Mrs. Hebert Layell and children, Elaine, Elless, Alice and Pam and Kenneth Fayard.

Mrs. Oswald Ladner and daughter, Mary Beth spent the weekend in Gulfport with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fuenete.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McHay and son Gus, Jr. and Miss Norma Kay Rome all of New Orleans were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. McKay.

Mississippians Will Do Well To Enjoy Vacations At Home

The Mississippians who have failed to take advantage of the vacation attractions right in their own backyard is missing a bet for not only a pleasant and worthwhile outing but for an economical one.

Most Mississippians are less than a day's ride from the most outstanding assortment of summer attractions to be found anywhere. Even the most remote sections today are accessible by car, bus, train or airline.

The State's historic and recreational attractions, which annually attract tourists from all over the world, are to be found in every section of Mississippi. The fabulous Gulf Coast alone, with its new man-made sand beach, super 4-lane highway, modern accommodations, excellent fishing and interesting and colorful history is considered one of the finest resort areas in the nation, yet it is one of the most reasonably priced vacation spots to be found anywhere.

This year 400,000 visitors from near and far will trek through the Vicksburg National Military Park to get better acquainted with history. They'll enjoy a beautiful view of the Mississippi River, get a glimpse of an old sternwheeler, visit a good museum, and look at scale models of the Mississippi watershed at the U. S. Waterways Experiment Station.

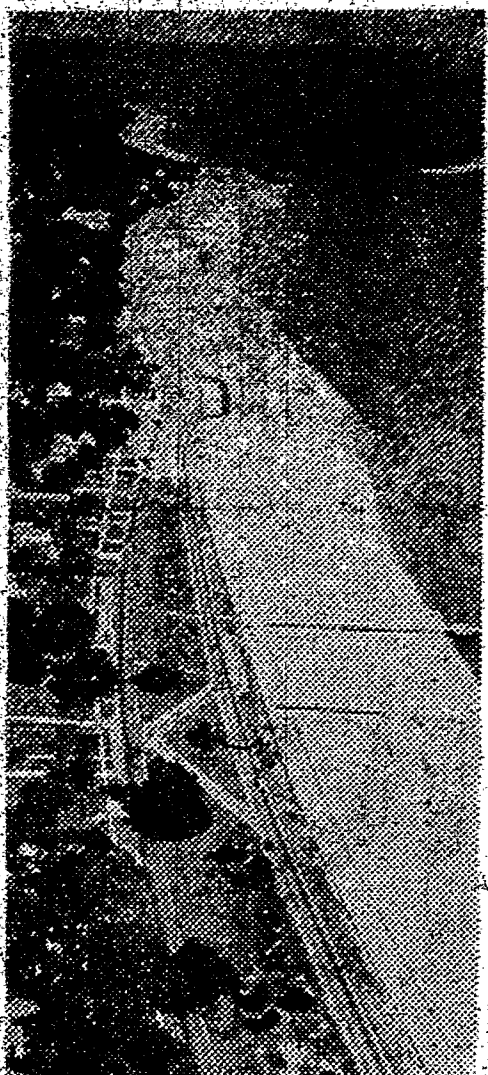

Over a million people will take advantage of the lovely Natchez Trace Parkway this year. Designed exclusively for passenger traffic, and still under construction, it serves as a 63-mile scenic park with picnic grounds, museums, nature trails, and all types flora and fauna indigenous of the country.

Mississippi's 12 state parks, convenient to every section of the state, will this year attract close to 800,000 persons for week-end outings or longer vacations. They all have overnight accommodations and offer just about every type of outdoor recreation to be found anywhere.

Four huge flood control reservoirs in North Mississippi on U. S. Highway 51, Arkabutla, Sardis, Enid and Grenada, undoubtedly will see their biggest attendance in history this summer and throngs of visitors from Mississippi and surrounding states visit them to fish, swim, water ski, sail or relax aboard houseboats or power-driven yachts.

In the Northeastern Section of the state, near Corinth and Iuka, Pickwick Lake will be the attraction for throngs of Mississippi, Tennessee and Alabama residents.

Fishermen in central and western Mississippi will throng by the thousands to scores of cypress-studded lakes along the Mississippi River, formed in days past by the whimsical meanderings of America's mightiest river. Here they'll not only get a new lease on life but stand a good chance of returning home with a nice string of crappie, bream, bass or catfish.

Anglers with a taste for salt water species will be checking their gear and the tides this month, when deep sea fishing really gets underway in earnest. Charter boats will be found at most Coast resorts. A score of inland fishing camps along the bayous leading to the Gulf also will be ready for the host of fishermen who prefer brackish water fishing where both salt and fresh water fish can be caught from the same spot.

The importance of fishing on the Coast is emphasized with the annual deep sea rodeo at Gulfport and the annual Shrimp Festival at Biloxi. Other important events are the weekly regattas and the annual Lipton Cup Race in September.

Mississippi's 1,000 miles of paved highway today boast new and modern motels, fine hotels, and numerous health resorts such as Allison Wells and Stafford Springs whose mineral waters have been used by generations of Mississippians.

Chances are that the average Mississippians during June, which is Hospitality Month, will Chancellor and Mrs. D. M. Russell, Gulfport, celebrated their 60th Wedding Anniversary and Judge Russell's 85th birthday last Sunday. Between four and five hundred visitors called during the afternoon to pay their respects. The Russells received many gifts from organizations and friends.

Judge Russell was elected Chancellor of the 8th District in 1928 and has served in that capacity continuously since then.

He is a member of the First Baptist Church, a life Deacon, a Mason, Knight of Pythias, and Woodman of the World.

Judge and Mrs. Russell are the parents of six children, three of whom are living: D. M. Russell, Jr., Bay St. Louis; Mrs. Paul M. Franke, Gulfport; and Mrs. T. A. Bokerstaff, University, Mississippi. They have 13 grandchildren and four great grandchildren, most of whom were in attendance Sunday.

EPISCOPAL PTA TO MEET TUESDAY

The Parent Teacher Association of Christ Episcopal Day School will meet on Tuesday evening at eight P.M. at the school. Officers will be elected for the coming year. There will be a report on the recent Spring Festival, also.

Mr. Don McCulloch will be guest speaker for the evening and will give a report on the Anti-Communist efforts of the Freedom Forum held in Searcy, Arkansas this month.

SHE'S GROWING WITH MISSISSIPPI

THE YOUNGEST STOCKHOLDER IN MISSISSIPPI'S NEWEST INDUSTRY — blonde, blue-eyed Barbara-Lynn Bell, investing in her own future and that of her state, receives her stock certificate representing thirty shares of stock from James W. Sanders, Jackson, treasurer of the Mississippi Valley Portland Cement Company. The Company's $5,750,000 plant near Vicksburg will be financed by the sale of 1,250,000 shares of the Company's original capital stock. Barbara Lynn is the three-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bell, 2043 Azalea Drive, Jackson, Mississippi.

HILL ENTERTAIN CAST OF LITTLE THEATRE

PRODUCTION

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hill, Jr. entertained the cast of the recent Little Theatre play at an Al Fresco party at their home on Main Street Saturday evening. Summer flowers decorated the reception rooms and the spacious porch of the home.

Each guest did a skit or a monologue and Mrs. Myrtle Stieffel entertained with several original songs accompanying herself on the ukelele.

A picnic supper was served to the twenty-two guests who included Mary Lynn and Jimmie Ansley, Nancy and Howard Adams, Penny and Gary Taylor, Fran and Lek Walters, Katherine and Julian O'Neal, Myrtle and Ray Stieffel, Ann Chapman Stieffel, Katie Wilson, Alice and John Scaffidi, Ezeida Ling, Theo Tudury, Jr., and Adele and John Husband.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH AUXILIARY MEETS

Chapter I of the Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Episcopal Church met in the parish house Tuesday morning immediately after the ten o'clock Communion Service.

Rev. C. R. Johnson opened the meeting with a brief talk on the Twelve Apostles and the special mid-week services commemorating them. Mrs. W. T. Turner, chairman, conducted the business meeting with Mrs. R. B. Burns giving the secretary's report and Mrs. Walter Gex, the treasurer's report.

Mrs. C. R. Johnson introduced Mrs. Rene de Montezin, Jr., who reviewed "Ruth and Naomi" from "Women of the Bible."

Mrs. Harold Weston gave the current events in the church.

Two delegates, Mesdames Walter Rausch and Julian O'Neal were chosen to represent the group at the Woman's Auxiliary Conference at Rose Hill June 6, 7, 8, and 9.

Miss Louise Crawford, Mrs. Owen Crawford and Mrs. N. P. Stillwell were hostesses at the social period after the meeting.

IN THE MATTER OF THE all persons having claims against said estate to have same probated and registered by the Clerk of said Court, within six months from this date, and failure to so probate and register same in six months will bar the claim.

What beverage is favored in 69 per cent of American homes

More than 69% of American families in all income groups, save beer. At-home consumption accounts for the largest part of beer sales by far. In fact, beer is so widely accepted as the beverage of moderation that it is included in the federal consumers price index.

Mississippi's tax on malt beverages remains unchanged as one of the highest in the nation, but other legislative action will substantially reduce this important revenue. Until this year, the brewing industry was the state's 4th largest taxpayer—yielding 4 million dollars year after year for Mississippi schools, rural roads and other necessary functions of local and state government.

Better eggs, poultry and dairy products are a result of brewing. Brewer's yeast and grain, enriched in the brewing process are widely used as a protein supplement for dairy cows and poultry.

Sharp-Williams Wedding Held Saturday

BWYC Places 5th In Sailing Event

A Bay-Waveland Yacht Club sailing trio compiled 21 points to place fifth in a field of 12 Yacht Club entries in the Gulf Yachting Association's opening regatta at Biloxi last weekend.

C. C. McDonald Jr., Ed N. Heath Jr., and Leo Seal Jr. represented the BWYC.

Gulfport's yacht club won the two day regatta, which opened Saturday, by totaling 34 1/2 points.

The local club is prepping for the Rathborne de Buys regatta which is scheduled for Pass Christian waters May 19 and 20. The three-day series will feature fish and lighting classes events, along with skipper and junior races.

In a spring meeting of the GYA preceding the regatta, J. Alvin Weinfurter of the BWYC was elected vice-president, Jack W. Bonnell, Fairhope, president, and J. Gilbert Scheib, Southern Yacht Club, New Orleans, secretary-treasurer.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Mrs. Gary Taylor and Mrs. John Griffin entertained on Wednesday at the Griffin Home with a buffet luncheon. Arrangements of varicolored stock and summer flowers decorated the living room, dining room and porch of the home.

The dining table from which the luncheon was served was covered with an imported white Maderia cloth and centered with a similar arrangement.

Bridge was the feature of the afternoon. Those present were Mesdames E. C. Samuel, Paul White, Lester Walters, M. A. Phillips, Lewis Wagner, Howard Adams, Walter Russo, T. A. Quigley, LeRoy McFarland, A. N. Pierce, II and the hostesses.

Lakeshore Notes

Lakeshore Said Fishing Mecca

By Mrs. Malcolm B. Green

Lakeshore is fast becoming known as the fishing haven of the Coast. We now have Paz and Mable LaFrances pleasant camps down Ansley way, Orrie and Elliotts, "Mouth of the Bayou, then Wm. Spence and Son, also Gulfview owned by Lambert Borge, and last but not least the Borge Brothers Camp. All have a good supply of skiffs, speed hulls, and outboards to rent. So if you decide to try your luck any of these fine days, all of these camps will give you the best in service and real hospitality.

Congratulations to the Fusch Brothers who have opened their own plumbing shop in Bay St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe LaFontaine invite their many old friends to the grand opening of the new "Town and Country Lounge" on the Black top road going to the beach. There will be free dancing by a good Hill Billy Band Saturday May 12th. The Lounge is decorated in soft browns and yellows and has a tile floor and there is plenty of parking space.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Garcia and children and Mrs. George Bourlet of New Orleans were week-end guests of Mrs. Viola Garcia.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Myzell of Leake, Miss, are guests of the Pat Powers of sportsmens Lake.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. James Higersoll who have a new son, their first child, born in Gulfport recently.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Lean Fontaine invite their many old friends to the grand opening of

Kiln Baptist Church Notes

A group of men from Shifalo Memorial Baptist Church in Kiln, are now putting on a radio program every Sunday afternoon at 1:00, over Station W. D. E. B., in Gulfport, 1390 on your radio dial. Rev. R. L. McNamee, pastor, will preach the sermon.

At the church, Sunday School will begin at 10:00 A.M. and the pastor will again preach at 11:00.

Sunday night, Baptist Training Union will begin at 6:30 and preaching service follows at 7:30.

Midweek Prayer Meeting is at 7:30 every Wednesday night. Last Saturday night, the Brotherhood members met for their monthly meeting, where supper was served and a message was brought by Roy Weber, Bay St. Louis.

Plans are being made for a revival to be held sometime in June.

Holy Name News

The St. Clare's Holy Name Society will hold its Official Monthly Communion on May 13th. The Communion will not be followed by a breakfast and business meeting due to this being Mother's Day. The mothers and wives are asked to participate in the communion with the Holy Name Members, since this month's intention is "Mothers of the Parish."

Saturday May 12th, the ladies and men of the Parish will make a drive for pledges and cash donations toward construction of the Parish Hall. The people of the Parish are urged to be generous in their contributions to this very worthy cause. A census will also be taken at this time.

Of interest in Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian was the wedding on Saturday afternoon in Picayune of Miss Alta Mae Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Holly Williams to Lt. Roger Post Sharp, Jr., United States Air Force, son of Mrs. Roger Post Sharp and the late Mr. Sharp of New Orleans and Pass Christian.

The First Methodist, scene of the impressive ceremony, was decorated with many lighted ivory tapers and bouquets of white stock and Easter lilies. The Rev. Frederick Franklin of the Episcopal Church of St. dell, La. and the Rev. David Ulmer of the Methodist Church, Picayune, officiated.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father and wore a gown of candlelight silk taffeta fashioned with a low decolletage and long sleeves ending in calla points. Imported French lace embroidered with seed pearls trimmed the bodice, extending down the waistline and ending in a train effect. She wore a lace cap and a finger tip veil of illusion and carried a cascade bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids.

Miss Sue Ann Francis of Midland, Texas, was maid of honor, and Mrs. John Zimmerman, New Orleans, served as Matron of honor. The bridesmaids included Misses Rosemary McGinn, Monroe, La. and Sherra Nell Cox of Picayune. They wore waltz length gowns of spring green chiffon with matching slippers. They carried pink roses and ivy and wore Juliet caps of pink rose petals.

Mr. John Winfield Sharp of New Orleans served his brother as best man and the groomsmen and ushers were Messrs. James Thomas Williams, Picayune; David Malone, Harry Howard, III, Edward Crawford, Granville Henderson Williams, Lt. Edward Crawford, and Lt. Donald Hammett.

A reception immediately followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents in Picayune. Profusions of white spring blooms decorated the home. Mrs. Williams chose for her daughter's wedding a gray silk organza gown with green accessories and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds. The groom's mother wore rose lace and chiffon with a corsage bouquet of white orchids pinned to one shoulder.

The young couple left for a honeymoon in New York and plan to live in London England where the groom is stationed in the Air Force.

Boats and Boating

Boats, Like Autos Must Observe Rules Of The Road For Safety

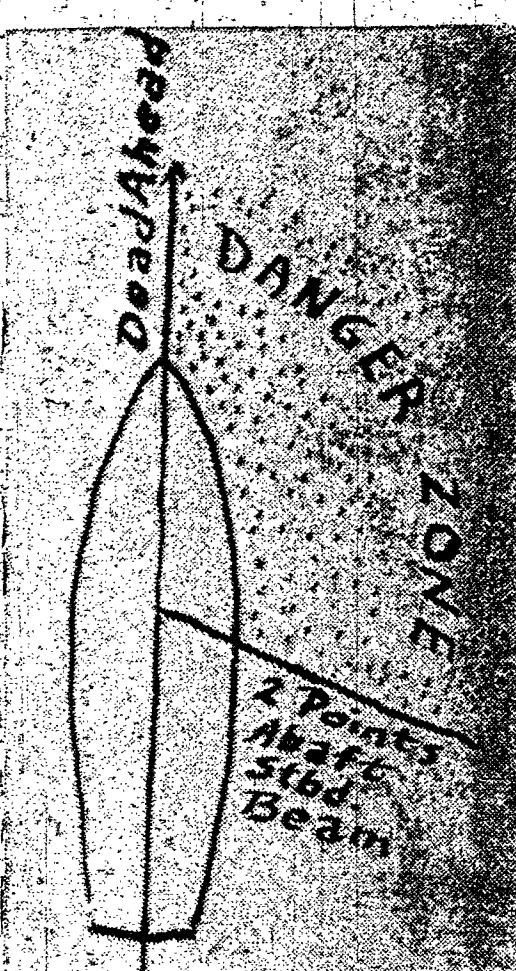

By Jim Pfeiffer

As with automobiles or any other vehicle of transportation, safety requires that there be certain Rules of the Road for boats. Indecision of action or action having an obscure motive on the part of one boat may mislead another vessel and confusion and indecision afloat often prove disastrous.

The Golden Rule for small boat handling is, Safety First and Keep to the Right. Time should never be considered wasted if safety is at stake.

The rules of the road are applicable to all types of vessels when underway. They apply to boats driven by steam, motor or sail power, ferry boats, pilot boats, tugs and tows, sailing vessels and, to some extent, to a vessel propelled by hand power and the current.

And a boat is considered underway when she is not at anchor, aground, or made fast to the shore.

As shown in the above illustration a boat's danger zone is from dead ahead to two points astern. In other words, anything approaching a vessel from this zone has the right of way, and the burdened vessel is obliged to yield the right of way. A boat approached from any other angle is the privileged vessel, and should hold her course.

However, the rules declare that a boat must make every effort to avoid a collision, despite the fact she has the right of way.

Naturally, some common sense must enter in, and it would be ridiculous to risk being run down in a rowboat by an ocean liner, just because the smaller boat has the right of way.

In all instances a sailboat has the right of way over a power vessel except when the sailboat is overtaking another vessel. In all cases, a boat being overtaken is the privileged vessel, and has the right of way.

$50,000 Suit Is

Outgrowth Of Auto Mishap

A Hancock County man was co-defendant in a $50,000 damage suit, which was the outgrowth of an automobile accident last December. The plaintiff lost her case.

Ray H. Stueffell, Clermont Harbor, and Mrs. J. E. Wood, Biloxi, defendants, were identified as the drivers of the two cars, which collided last year at the intersection of Nicholson Ave. and Hwy. 90, four miles west of Bay St. Louis.

Miss Maude Bradshaw, Biloxi, plaintiff, alleged she suffered permanent injuries as a passenger in the vehicle driven by Mrs. Wood.

A Harrison County circuit court jury deliberated about 90 minutes Thursday night and returned a verdict for the defendants to circuit Judge Leslie B. Grant.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

I, Fred Rester, Trustee, under the provisions of and by virtue of authority conferred in a Deed of Trust executed by Perry

Smith and wife, Inez Smith, to J. E. Harvey of Poplarville, Miss., on the 12th day of August, 1950, to secure a certain indebtedness to J. E. Harvey in the sum of ELEVEN HUNDRED AND THIRTY FOUR AND NO 100 DOLLARS plus advances, which Deed of Trust is recorded in Book 48, pages 91-92 of the Trust Deed Records of Hancock County, Mississippi in the office of the Chancery

Clerk; and default having been made in the payment of said indebtedness to said J. E. Harvey, and being directed to foreclose said Deed of Trust by the said J. E. Harvey; therefore, I, Fred Rester, named in said Deed of Trust as trustee thereof, will on Monday the 4 day of June, 1956, offer for sale and will sell at public auction for cash to the highest and best bidder at the Courthouse in

Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, during legal hours, the following described property, to-wit: SE 1/4 of NW 1/4, Section 17, Township 5, South Range 14 West, situated in Hancock County, Mississippi, less and except the mineral rights, which have heretofore been title. I will convey only such title as is vested in me as trustee, but I believe the title to be good.

This 3 day of May, 1956.
Fred Rester

WORLD COMBED FOR FILM TALENT

Robert Rossen was forced to form his own version of the United Nations while filming his spectacular CinemaScope Technicolor production, "Alexander the Great," which opens at the Legion Theatre through United Artists release. In order to film the epic story of Alexander's life, Rossen combed the entire world for talent and finally brought together in Spain the most diversified international cast and production crew in movie history. All told, 28 nationalities were represented.

Young Drilling To 13,000 Feet In Ansley Field

Marshall R. Young is drilling below 8,300 feet in his International Alexander No. 1, sec. 30-9s-15w., located about one-half mile northwest of the discovery well in the Ansley field of Hancock County.

A second venture, W. J. Gex Jr. No. 1, sec. 20-9s-15w., located approximately a mile northeast of the discovery, is reported to be drilling surface hole with his venture expected to be drilled to 13,000 feet.

The Ansley field produces from a sand in the lower cretaceous at 10,839-51 feet and was discovered on subsurface geology after 10 dry holes were drilled in the general area.

MURRAY HAS EXPERIENCE OFFICER AS BUSINESSMAN

If he hadn't turned movie star, astute actor Fred MacMurray, currently starring with Barbara Stanwyck and Joan Bennett in Universal-International's poignant drama, "There's Always Tomorrow," opening Sun. at the Hi-Way Drive-In Theater, probably would have become a business tycoon or possibly an investment broker.

He's that cagey about matters financial.

As it is, the ruggedly handsome leading man neatly manages to combine a spectacularly successful film career with almost equally rewarding outside business ventures.
